

BLUEREPUBLICAN

Application Form for Chapter Executives

- When did you first learn about Blue Republican?
- How would you describe the Blue Republican philosophy and approach?
- What sets Blue Republican as a movement apart from other liberty-orientated movements, and most appeals to you about it?

- When did you first identify a person with a “liberty” political orientation?
- What liberty-orientated activism have you already engaged in?
- What experience do you have of leading political groups and/or groups of volunteers?
- With respect to the last two questions, what was the greatest challenge you encountered and what was your most important learning?

- Why do you want to lead a Blue Republican chapter, rather than any other liberty group?
- What special traits, ideas or passions do you bring to Blue Republican?

- What else would you like to ask and/or tell us?
